Reopening Website Revisions

Liz, Diane and Tracy will look at the Reopening Website and make changes due to the revised models at the MS and HS

Resources on Race & Equity Website

A small subcommittee will review this part of the website and organize the resources by age appropriateness and other categories so that the resources are easier to navigate for parents and community members. We will also ask teachers for any resources that they recommend be included.

Communication - Reopening Schools

Lisa is working on a K-12 to give parents some information about the status of reopening schools.
