COURSE OUTLINE

SUBJECT: Language Acquisition B [Italian] GRADE: 8

COURSE DESCRIPTION:

Using language for different functions in everyday life help keep people connected by enhancing social and cultural identities. This will be our focus of study.

Foreign language study in level I B is a continuation of instruction through grades 6 and 7. Students will have studied the basic grammatical structures and verb forms in the target language and should possess a strong foundation in auditory and reading comprehension. In level I B, the students will further develop the skills of speaking, listening, reading and writing. They are required to take the District's LOTE Proficiency Examination in the target language in June. Upon successful completion of the course and exam, the student will be rewarded with one high school credit.
