7. Citizen's Comments

7.01 Notice

Members of the community may comment on any matter related to district business. Any group or organization wishing to address the Board must identify a single spokesperson. Presentations should be as brief as possible and no speaker will be permitted to speak for longer than 3 minutes. It is expected that speakers will conduct themselves in a civil manner and will be ruled out of order for any statement that constitutes a direct threat against officers, employees or students of the school district, or that is obscene. Questions or comments concerning matters that are not on the agenda will be taken under consideration and referred to the Superintendent for appropriate action.

A parent shared concern regarding the Algebra 1 versus Math 8 exams and how the curriculum will prepare the students.

- SAT prep class
- Is the number of economically disadvantaged number actually 15% or is it higher at the HS level?
  - HS numbers decline in some cases due to students not wanting to be labeled
  - Federal Government uses more inclusive data, i.e., census data not only F&R
  - Some families are just on the cusp
  - Numbers are increasing population of the District has changed
  - Generally, at least one person knows that a student is in need of help in some way
- Do we have numbers of K-12 students that are economically disadvantaged with IEP's?
  - Will be in the Special Education presentation
- Backwards mapping curriculum design with the end plan in mind what needs to be done in 9th grade for the end result in 12th grade
- Advisory every other day for ½ a year as an elective for a year full day if the student wants it
  - o Grades 9-12 some students counsel in or some elect
  - There are 6-7 sections that cap at 10 students; next year possibly breakout by Grades 9-10 11-12 separate
- Any plan for an ACT prep class?
  - o Possibly in the future
  - SAT still more popular of the two
- Regents data
  - Would like to see 65-75 data by subgroup
  - The District will provide that data
- Numbers are more likely 15% not 9% has the economics really changed?
- Economically disadvantaged kids dropping out of Math
  - HS is using many methods to find and keep them engaged
- Can we do that at the earlier grades?
- What does rigor look like for IEP students?
  - o Special Education presentation will include that information
  - In the HS IB co taught classes are for IEP students
  - o IEP students are not being overlooked
