Dobbs Ferry High School Honor Societies Induct New Members for 2014-2015 Academic Year

Dobbs Ferry, N.Y. June 9, 2014-- The Dobbs Ferry High School Honor Societies, including the French, Italian, Spanish and National Honor chapters, inducted a record 83 new members at the joint convocation ceremony on May 29th. While the individual societies have admission criteria specific to that organization, each chapter recognizes students who have shown a consistent commitment to excellence in academic performance for their area of concentration. High School Science teacher James Cottingham is the advisor for the National Honor Society and Italian teacher Maria Addona is the advisor to all of the Foreign Language Societies. All of the new honor society members are presently 11th graders.

New member inductees for each society are as follows:
