COURSE OUTLINE

SUBJECT: Language & Literature

GRADE: 7

Course Description:

Some of the Statements of Inquiry to be studied are:

1. In order to have empathy for all, we need to raise awareness about differences and explore what it means to be human so that meaningful connections can be made within society.
2. The study of how past injustices have led to change can now lead individuals and groups to change what they perceive to be unfair in today's society by taking a critical stance on the topic.

Seventh-grade Language & Literature is designed to meet the developmental and educational needs of every seventh grade student through the study of reading, writing, and language.

Students are expected to increase their ability to analyze and synthesize information, improve their reading abilities and become a more proficient writer. Additionally, Seventh Grade Language and Literature will foster students' competency to read critically, write effectively and communicate efficiently, providing a foundation for their upcoming years in high school and beyond.

Anticipated Student Outcomes:

By June of this year, students are expected to demonstrate the following:

Reading:

- Employ critical thinking skills when reading fiction and non-fiction.
- Build strong content knowledge through content-rich nonfiction.
- Evaluate evidence when reading literary and informational text.
- Comprehend, as well as critique, complex texts and their academic language.
- Read carefully and grasp information, arguments, ideas, and details based on evidence in the text.
- Come to understand other perspectives and cultures.

Writing
